EDUTEL

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

Welcome to EDUTEL: Your one-stop educational service

EDUTEL's vision is to make education truly accessible and to debunk the notion that education belongs in an ivory tower. EDUTEL is fast changing traditional ideas about education, and, more specifically, the ways in which people of all walks of life can now engage in every aspect of life-long learning at its very best.

EDUTEL is the embodiment of sound educational design and planning, the integration of both practical and intellectual minds, and, moreover, the exemplification of real collaboration.

EDUTEL, simply put, is an educational service that enables employers to concentrate on their core business, while EDUTEL takes care of every aspect of learning and training at the various levels of competency – efficiently and cost-effectively – and always according to employers' specific needs in the workplace.

EDUTEL collaborates with various formal and non-formal educational institutions, empowering students and business environments alike, with sound advice, training and, increasingly, the facilitation of training.

Central to EDUTEL's overarching vision and mission of greater educational access is the notion that all learning should be skills-based, outcomes-based, or, if you like, purpose-based – clearly defined in terms of the learner's profile, his/her weaknesses and strengths, and geared to the most effective ways in which life-long learning could facilitate a more complete individual and, in fact, an able and productive contributor to South Africa's economy.

Considering that all EDUTEL's listed programmes and courses are designed in accordance with the requirements and principles set by the Education Act, the National Qualifications Framework, South African Qualifications Authority, and internationally benchmarked, it becomes even clearer that this one-stop educational service is indeed the result of careful planning.

These successes are the result of EDUTEL's sound organisational and administrative structure, its extended academic networks and access to the best and biggest variety of venues through sound collaboration, its infrastructure and, therefore, its ability to identify specific needs in the workplace and the greater South African and international labour market.

What if I can do certain activities already?

You will be able to apply for RPL assessment against certain unit standards. This means that evidence of your experience and previous studies could be used for an assessment process in order to declare you competent. This process is called Recognition of Prior Learning.

How to apply for RPL

Pre-entry phase

- The learner applies for assessment for recognition of learning.
- The learner is given the necessary information.

- A preliminary screening process takes place where the viability of an RPL assessment is determined.

Advice phase

- The evidence facilitator assists the candidate with the gathering of evidence and presentation of the Portfolio of Evidence.
- The function of the evidence facilitator is clearly defined as one of support and advice through the accumulation of evidence.
- The evidence facilitator only facilitates the process of evidence gathering: the candidate has the responsibility of undertaking this task.

Assessment phase

- The candidate compiles and submits a portfolio.
- The registered assessor assesses the portfolio.
- The assessor and the evidence facilitator will not be the same person.
 - a. Competent – Assessor records results and submits candidate's evidence for moderation.
 - b. Not yet competent – Assessor requests more evidence or sets further assessment activities.

Moderation phase

- The moderator moderates the assessment process.
- The moderator makes recommendations where necessary.
- The declaration of competence is confirmed.

Certification phase

- The candidate is issued with a certificate of competence.

- The necessary data is uploaded to the National Learner Record Database (NLRD).

4. Facilitating skills development in the workplace

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT FACILITATOR

Why do this learning programme?

The Skills Development Act of 1998 brought into being the new function of the Skills Development Facilitator, a person who is qualified or experienced at NQF level 5 or higher (i.e. post-matriculation), and who is responsible, within an organisation, for developing that organisation's annual Workplace Skills Plan, and for managing the financial Skills Development Levy refund process on behalf of the organisation.

Who would be able to make use of this learning?

The job requires good interpersonal and communication skills, and the ability to keep track of a wide range of training and financial records, using computer technology. The person in the organisation who works with human resource development and training issues would be the ideal candidate for this learning programme.

How is this learning programme structured?

The programme is based on the outcomes of the following newly registered SDF unit standards:

- 252041 Promote a learning culture in an organisation, NQF 5 (5 credits)
- 15221 Provide information and advice regarding skills development and related issues, NQF 5 (4 credits)
- 15232 Co-ordinate planned skills development interventions in an organisation, NQF 5 (6 credits)

- 15217 Develop an organisational training and development plan, NQF 5 (6 credits)
- 15228 Advise on the establishment and implementation of a new quality management system for skills development practices in an organisation, NQF 5 (10 credits)
- 15227 Conduct skills development administration in an organisation, NQF 4 (4 credits)

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

You need to be computer-literate, to understand the nature of the business, and to have access to both employees and management at every level of the organisation.

What will I be able to do at the end of the learning?

You will be able to conduct a skills audit in your workplace and, from that, compile a workplace skills plan for submission to your relevant SETA. You will then be able to implement the training as planned and keep track of all the skills development interventions taking place. Finally, you will be able to submit the annual report to the SETA in order to access skills development levy money – it is the right of the organisation.

How long will I be busy?

The instructional learning part of this programme is covered in a three-day intensive small-group training intervention. From then you will have a year in which to produce the evidence for your Portfolio.

(Optional: 1-day portfolio-building workshop).

Other good news

Although there is, as yet, no formal qualification for the SDF, you will be able to register with your relevant SETA as an SDF and you might even become a preferred SDF with the ETQA of the SETA.

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETDP SETA ETQA.

Rules relating to assessment, academic credit, progression and qualification

Learners will be assessed by completing a knowledge questionnaire and compiling Portfolios of Evidence. Once you have been declared competent and your assessment outcome has been verified by the ETDP SETA you will earn the credits linked to unit standards making up your skills programme/qualification. These credits will be registered on the National Learners' Records Database and will always remain to your credit. Should you want to continue with your studies, you will be able to apply for RPL/credits for what you have already achieved if it forms part of that qualification's curriculum. This skills programme/qualification will serve as an entry requirement for follow-up skills programmes/qualifications specialising in the same field at a higher level.

5. Designing and Developing Learning Programmes

PROGRAMME DESIGNER AND PROGRAMME AND MATERIALS DEVELOPER

Why do this course?

The art of designing and developing a learning programme within outcomes-based education and training involves identifying the outcomes to be achieved by the learner before planning the training. This stimulating programme gives you these skills.

Who would be able to make use of this learning?

Any trainer who has to put together a training programme in the workplace, will benefit from learning how to define learning outcomes and following the correct steps towards developing a programme.

These credits will be registered on the National Learners' Records Database and will always remain to your credit. Should you want to continue with your studies, you will be able to apply for RPL/credits for what you have already achieved if it forms part of that qualification's curriculum. 7. Supporting the Learner

COACHING THE LEARNER

("Perform one-to-one training on the job", NQF 3 (4 credits) ID: 117877)

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETDP SETA ETQA.

8. Mentoring

GUIDING, SUPPORTING AND COUNSELLING LEARNERS

Why do this course?

With the advent of learnerships in the workplace, and according to SAQA, the function of the mentor has become increasingly important. The necessity for implementing a formalised mentorship system has become apparent to those involved in learnerships at all NQF levels. This programme gives you the skills to conduct the mentoring intervention in the workplace.

You will, however, not be able to deal with complex situations involving psychological diagnoses and counselling services. These will have to be referred to the correct individuals.

Other good news

You will be able to use these skills in every sector of the business world and you will have the opportunity to register as a mentor with your relevant SETA.

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETDP SETA ETQA.

9. Assessing Outcomes-based learning

ASSESSOR TRAINING

Why do this course?

Assessors, together with moderators, are the gatekeepers to achieving National Qualifications in South Africa. As such, assessors in all industries are required to complete formal recognised training to be able to fulfil this critical function.

Who would be able to make use of this learning?

The assessor is an individual who is, firstly, a functional expert in his/her own sphere of excellence and who has undergone further training in the skills and procedures of assessment. Secondly, he/she is responsible for ensuring that any person who wishes to achieve credits for specific skills undergoes a proper, fair and reliable assessment to determine the required competency. Therefore, anyone who is involved in the assessment processes of the organisation would need to become a registered assessor.

How is this course structured?

This stimulating programme is based on the outcomes of the SAQA registered Unit Standard 115753 on NQF level 5. It carries 15 credits and addresses the process which must be followed when assessing learning outcomes.

How long will I be busy?

Three days of intensive training will give you the basic knowledge and skills required to assess properly in the skills development arena. After this you will have six months to practice further in your workplace, while collecting evidence for your Portfolio. (Optional: one-day portfolio-building workshop).

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

All you require is the necessary subject matter expertise.

What will I be able to do at the end of the learning?

You will be able to conduct outcomes-based assessments using a variety of assessment techniques and instruments. You will be able to consider all evidence relevant to a particular training intervention and institute all appropriate methods and checks to determine whether the identified criteria have been met by the candidate. You will make a judgement about the competence of the candidate and then give feedback to all relevant parties.

Other good news

Once you have been declared competent, you may apply for national registration as an assessor.

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETDP SETA ETQA.

Rules relating to assessment, academic credit, progression and qualification

Learners will be assessed by completing a knowledge questionnaire and compiling Portfolios of Evidence. Once you have declared competent and your assessment outcome has been verified by the ETDP SETA you will earn the credits linked to unit standards making up your skills programme/qualification. These credits will be registered on the National Learners' Records Database and will always remain to your credit. Should you want to continue with your studies, you will be able to apply for RPL/credits for what you have already achieved if it forms part of that qualification's curriculum. This skills programme/qualification will serve as an entry requirement for follow-up skills programmes/qualifications specialising in the same field at a higher level.

10. Moderating the Assessment

MODERATOR TRAINING

Why do this course?

Being an integral part of the assessment team in an organisation, the moderator's overriding objective is to conduct quality assurance of all assessments which have been completed. The moderator, therefore, has the prime function of reviewing an assessor's work with a view to determining whether the judgements made are within the principles of fairness, validity, reliability, sufficiency, etc. This training enables you to do exactly that.

Who would be able to make use of this learning?

Any registered assessor who wishes to assist in the maintenance of assessment standards can train as a moderator. Characteristics which a moderator must have are diplomacy, excellent communication skills and strong analytical thinking traits.

How is this course structured?

The course is based on the unit standard called "Conduct moderation of outcomes-based assessments" (Unit Standard 115759). Two days are spent learning how to conduct a proper moderation and how to advise and support assessors – in addition to reviewing the assessment principles and processes from the perspective of a moderator. You then have to implement the newly acquired skills by moderating several assessments in your workplace. (Optional: one-day portfolio-building workshop).

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

You need to have been declared competent as an assessor – preferably with national registration.

What will I be able to do at the end of the learning?

You will be able to plan and prepare for moderation, conduct the moderation and give feedback, advice and support to the assessor. You will be able to make judgements about the standard of the assessments and to give objective advice to those concerned, while being pro-actively aware of any assessment shortcomings which may occur.

Other good news

Once you have been declared competent against the newly registered unit standard, you will be able to gain national registration as a moderator.

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETDP SETA ETQA.

Rules relating to assessment, academic credit, progression and qualification

Learners will be assessed by completing knowledge questionnaire and compiling Portfolios of Evidence. Once you have been declared competent and your assessment outcome has been verified by the ETDP SETA you will earn the credits linked to unit standards making up your skills programme/qualification. 11. The Evidence Facilitator in the Workplace

Why do this course?

The evidence facilitator or RPL adviser is a very important role player in the process of recognising the prior learning of a candidate when a declaration of competence has to be made.

Who would be able to make use of this learning?

Any person who is involved in the assessment process in the workplace and who works with potential candidates. Although the evidence facilitator does not need to be a registered assessor, it is recommended. The evidence facilitator must be capable of making objective judgements regarding the evidence collected.

How is this course structured?

The programme comprises several learning outcomes which are covered in a four-day intensive small group training intervention. The outcomes are the following:

- Advise and support candidates to prepare, organise and present evidence.
- Check and give feedback on candidate evidence.

Based on the unit standard "Facilitate the preparation of evidence for assessment", ID 12544.

How long will I be busy?

Four days of intensive training will give you the basic skills to conduct an RPL process before summative assessment takes place. Then you will need to practise using the process as indicated in the outcomes.

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

You require the necessary subject matter expertise and some general knowledge related to outcomes-based assessment. Edutel takes you through the steps which have to be followed in the RPL process.

What will I be able to do at the end of the learning?

You will be able to assist the candidate in identifying the appropriate evidence according to the outcomes and his/her unique circumstances. You will also be able to determine when the candidate is ready for assessment. Remember: the evidence facilitator does not gather the evidence – he/she only assists the candidate in doing this.

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETD P SETA ETQA.

Rules relating to assessment, academic credit, progression and qualification

Learners will be assessed by completing a knowledge questionnaire and compiling Portfolios of Evidence. Once you have been declared competent and your assessment outcome has been verified by the ETD P SETA you will earn the credits linked to unit standards making up your skills programme/qualification. These credits will be registered on the National Learners' Records Database and will always remain to your credit. Should you want to continue with your studies, you will be able to apply for RPL/credits for what you have already achieved if it forms part of that qualification's curriculum. This skills programme/qualification will serve as an entry requirement for follow-up skills programmes/qualifications specialising in the same field at a higher level.

12. The Assessment Designer

Why do this course?

Designing assessment instruments is a very necessary activity before any effective assessment can take place. It is a specialised task for logical but creative individuals who are familiar with the outcomes-based assessment methodologies.

Who would be able to make use of this learning?

The task of designing assessments requires of the designer to be not only a subject-matter expert, but also knowledgeable about the various methods, techniques and tools used for integrated assessment. Therefore, anyone involved in outcomes-based assessments could benefit from this training.

How is this course structured?

Two days of hands-on practice in designing integrated assessment instruments under the guidance of experienced ETD practitioners. Then back to the workplace for approximately three to six months to try your hand at developing assessment strategies, guides and instruments. When ready for assessment you submit a Portfolio of Evidence. The training is based on the outcomes of Unit Standard ID 115755 "Design and develop outcomes-based assessments", NQF 6, 10 credits.

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

You require the necessary subject matter expertise and some general knowledge related to outcomes-based assessment.

What will I be able to do at the end of the learning?

You will be able to design assessment strategies suited to the outcomes to be assessed, compile assessment guides to be used by assessors, and develop assessment instruments appropriate to the concept of integrated assessment.

How long will I be busy?

Two days of workshop-based activities will give you the basic skills to design and develop assessment instruments. You will then be expected to return to the workplace and use your newly acquired skills before submitting your portfolio for summative assessment. (Optional: one-day portfolio-building workshop).

Other good news

Ideally, the ETD Practitioner should first learn to develop assessment instruments, and therefore this unit standard assist in understanding the integral process of interpreting a unit standard for purposes of assessment.

The certificate will also help to increase the employment prospects of ETD practitioners, while helping to ensure quality and competence within the ETD field.

This qualification will provide a means to recognise OD-ETD practice at Level 5 across all the roles in a generalist capacity, with particular application possible in at least one role. Practitioners who wish to extend their skills in ETD to cover further ETD roles may progress from this certificate to the Diploma OD-ETDP, Level 5.

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

Subject matter expertise in which you will provide education and training at a level

required to engage meaningfully in ETD within that field.

- FETC or equivalent.
- Further learning assumptions are specified within the associated unit standards where required.

Why do this qualification?

The Skills Development Act of 1998 brought into being the new function of Skills Development Facilitator, a person who is qualified or experienced at NQF level 5 or higher (i.e. post-matriculation), and who is responsible, within an organisation, for developing that organisation's annual Workplace Skills Plan, and for managing the financial Skills Development Levy refund process on behalf of the organisation. Although there is, as yet, no formal registered qualification for the SDF, you will be able to register with your relevant SETA as an SDF.

The person who attends the training needs to be computer-literate, understand the nature of the organisation's business, and have access to both employees and management at every level of the organisation.

What will I be able to do at the end of the learning?

You will be able to:

- conduct a skills audit in your workplace;
- compile a workplace skills plan for submission to your respective SETA;
- implement the training as planned;
- keep track of all the skills development interventions taking place;
- submit the annual report to the SETA in order to access the skills development levy funds;
- conduct quality assurance checks while the training is being implemented.

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETDP SETA ETQA.

Rules relating to assessment, academic credit, progression and qualification

Learners will be assessed by writing knowledge tests and compiling Portfolios of Evidence. Once you are declared competent and your assessment outcome has been verified by the ETDP SETA you will earn the credits linked to unit standards making up your skills programme/qualification. These credits will be registered on the National Learners' Records Database and will always remain to your credit. Should you want to continue with your studies, you will be able to apply for RPL/credits for what you have already achieved if it forms part of that qualification's curriculum. This skills programme/qualification will serve as an entry requirement for follow-up skills programmes/qualifications specialising in the same field at a higher level.

18. Become an Educator Assessor through distance study

EDUCATOR ASSESSOR

Why do this course?

Assessors, together with moderators, are the gatekeepers to achieving National Qualifications in South Africa. As such, assessors in all educational institutions will be required to complete formal recognised training to be able to fulfil this critical function.

- This course contributes towards a further qualification in Education and Training Practices, which Edutel offers.
- You receive a certificate from UNISA and Edutel once the learning programme has been completed.
- Once declared competent, you gain national assessor registration with the ETDP SETA, with a certificate as evidence of this.
- You can follow this learning programme with the learning programme which capacitates you as a Moderator.
- It makes you more marketable as an educator.
- The programme assists with the understanding of the entire assessment process, including CASS.
- It allows for a better understanding of the differences between assessment methods, tools and techniques.
- It gives you hands-on experience of the use of the various tools and techniques.
- It gives you the opportunity to define your own preferences regarding the new assessment methods, by allowing you to test drive them in your classroom as a means of formative assessment and reflection.

- It enables you to use them with confidence and creativity.
- It gives you a more in-depth knowledge of outcomes-based principles and practices.

Who would be able to make use of this learning?

Any educator who knows that assessment of learning outcomes has to take place regularly in the classroom and wants to conduct the assessment in the correct way. This does not mean only teachers may enrol for the training – management personnel should also become registered assessors.

How is this course structured?

This stimulating programme is based on the outcomes of the SAQA registered Unit Standard 115753 on NQF level 5. It carries 15 credits and addresses the process which must be followed when assessing learning outcomes. The programme has been customised to suit the classroom situation where groups of learners are assessed at one time. The modules covered are:

- Understanding outcomes-based assessment
- Planning and preparing for the assessment
- Conducting assessment
- Evaluating evidence and making judgements

- Giving feedback
- Reviewing the assessment

You will receive your manuals, videos, workbooks and other training material as soon as you have registered. You will also receive portfolio templates which will need to be completed. Instructions on how to compile a portfolio of evidence are included. You can then work at your own pace and complete the assignments, worksheets and the portfolio of evidence and submit these for assessment.

How long will I be busy?

You will have approximately 6 months in which to complete the learning programme and submit your evidence for assessment purposes. While you are busy in the classroom, you will be able to apply your new skills as often as you wish. However, you will have to produce evidence of at least two summative assessments which took place in the classroom.

You may start at any time.

The programme is based on distance learning principles.

The programme takes 3-6 months to complete.

You work in your own time.

There will always be a telephone tutor to assist you with your problems.

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

All you require is the necessary subject matter expertise in your learning area and phase in the school.

What will I be able to do at the end of the learning?

You will be able to conduct outcomes-based assessments in the classroom using a variety of assessment techniques and instruments. Other good news

This qualification leads to further qualifications within the ETD environment, all of which are registered qualifications on the NQF.

Accreditation status

The programme is approved by the ETDP SETA ETQA.

Rules relating to assessment, academic credit, progression and qualification

Learners will be assessed by completing a knowledge questionnaire and compiling Portfolios of Evidence. The qualification will also be valuable for those who may have been practising within the field, but without formal recognition. This qualification will be useful for:

Many of the skills development objectives, nationally and within companies and organisations, are met through the efforts of ETD practitioners operating at NQF level 5, and this certificate addresses the key competencies of such practitioners.

This qualification will meet the need of those who wish to progress beyond the FETC OD-ETD or who wish to enter the field of ETD for the first time. The certificate will also help to increase the employment prospects of ETD practitioners, while helping to ensure quality and competence within the ETD field.

This qualification will provide a means to recognise OD-ETD practice at Level 5 across all the roles in a generalist capacity, with particular application possible in at least one role. Practitioners who wish to extend their skills in ETD to cover further ETD roles may progress from this certificate to the Diploma OD-ETDP, Level 5.

What entry requirements must I fulfil?

Subject matter expertise in which you will provide education and training at a level

required to engage meaningfully in ETD within that field.

- FETC or equivalent.
- Further learning assumptions are specified within the associated unit standards where required.

What exit-level outcomes will I have achieved?

- Communicate in a variety of ETD settings.
- Design and develop learning programmes and processes.
- Facilitate and evaluate learning.
- Engage in and promote assessment practices.
- Provide learning support to learners and organisations.
- Conduct skills development facilitation.

How long will I be busy?

You will be required to accumulate 120 credits. You will be able to complete the qualification within 12 months. Should you wish to accumulate the credits over a period of time, the duration will depend on you.

Other good news

For this reason the management of Edutel wishes to commit the organisation and all its resources to ethically and morally defensible behaviour in all its operations and in all interactions with its constituents at all times.”

A.B. Pelsler

Ethics

Attending instructional learning

It is expected of learners who are scheduled to attend formal instructional learning sessions to ensure that they arrive at the designated venue on time, bringing along all relevant materials and associated equipment to ensure that they are well prepared to attend and benefit from the instructional interventions.

Roll-out plans and training schedules

Learners must ensure that they have in their possession a copy of their learning schedule (roll-out plans) and that they strictly adhere to the locations, times and dates as set out in these schedules, unless otherwise informed in writing by Edutel or any of its authorised constituents of changes made to such schedules. Only changes communicated in writing are considered valid and learners should not adhere to any verbal instructions concerning scheduled changes.

Participation in instructional learning

Learners are expected to participate in all activities and discussions taking place during instructional learning sessions. Learners should appreciate these opportunities and at all times utilise such learning opportunities to their advantage.

Conduct towards co-learners and facilitators

Learners are expected to respect the dignity of their co-learners and facilitators. Their behaviour towards other learners and facilitators should always be civilised, courteous and supportive. Foul language, disrespect and a discriminatory attitude towards any other learner or facilitator will not be tolerated and will be dealt with in the strictest possible manner.

Dress code

Learners are expected to ensure that their personal appearance and dress code conform to acceptable norms, are not offensive and do not detract from the professional image that is projected by Edutel, co-learners and employer organisations.

Employer relations

Learners should recognise that when attending training interventions under instructions from their employers, that such attendance is treated under the same employment terms and conditions of work as applied by their employers, at their respective places of work. They remain employees of the employer organisation, irrespective of where instructional learning takes place and, as such, they are held accountable to conduct themselves as their employers expect them to behave when at their places of work.

Workplace learning and assessments

Learners are expected to apply themselves as diligent, motivated and productive employees while performing their duties in their workplaces. They should understand that their workplaces are extensions of the instructional learning components and that they must utilise every opportunity at the workplace to apply their learning and, in so doing, develop their knowledge, skills and experience. Learners should actively and positively participate in all assessments and ensure that all assessments are conducted in a fair and just manner.

Assessments and proof of competence

Learners are expected to provide proof of competence through recognised assessment and moderation procedures and instruments. It is expected of learners to fully participate in these activities and to ensure that all evidence submitted as proof of their competence is a true and accurate reflection of their own ability and skills, and that no part of any evidence can be claimed to present the efforts of another person in whatever capacity or association with the learner. Learners are expected to demonstrate extreme honesty and integrity in these matters.

Use of facilities

Learners are expected to use all physical facilities, including furniture and equipment, with utmost care and respect and to refrain from any wilful acts of vandalism, abuse or negligence.

Appeals procedure

Learners who are not satisfied with the manner in which their learning efforts have been assessed are required to utilise Edutel's appeals procedure and to refrain from trying to resolve such matters in other ways.

Communication

Learners are encouraged to communicate with Edutel and its employees using recognised channels of communication established for such purposes. These channels include personal contact, written (fascimile, letter or e-mail) or telephonic communication. Learners are expected to resolve any issues with Edutel directly and not to use intermediaries to address such matters.

GRIEVANCE POLICY FOR EDUTEL

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to formulate the values and philosophy of Edutel when dealing with grievances of its learners.

Objectives

The objectives of this policy is to:

- establish a fair process for learners to air their grievances;
- provide a mechanism for dealing with learner grievances in order to protect learner morale and motivation;
- maintain sound and effective working relationships in the organisation.

Scope

This policy is applicable to all categories of learners attending training interventions offered by Edutel.

Policy statements

All learners may lodge grievances without any fear of victimisation or prejudice.

All grievances are to be handled with the utmost discretion and with the dignity and privacy of learners in mind.

Grievances shall be settled as speedily and effectively as possible.

This policy deals with individuals' grievances and grievances in small groups.

The Human Resources Manager or his/her delegate acts as advisor to both parties in the grievance investigation.

The policy does not replace normal communication between learners and Edutel and should therefore be utilised in cases where informal communication has been exhausted or is clearly inappropriate.

Learners have the right to be assisted by a co-learner of their choice at any stage of the procedure.

The grievance must be raised within five working days of the occurrence that gave rise to it, failing which, unless special circumstances exist, the learner will have no recourse to the grievance procedure.

Revision

This policy to be revised after two years from date of acceptance.

Responsibility

This policy is the responsibility of the Training Quality Assurance Committee of Edutel.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE FOR EDUTEL

Phase 1

The learner must orally communicate the grievance directly to the Edutel Project Manager responsible for the particular learning programme. The learner must indicate that he/she is lodging a formal grievance.

The Edutel Project Manager must:

- listen in private to the learner's problem;
- encourage the learner to speak openly about his/her grievances;
- give the learner the assurance that he/she will not be victimised;
- ask relevant questions to obtain all facts relating to the grievance;
- respect the need for confidentiality;
- endeavour to resolve the problem as soon as possible and furnish the learner with an answer within three working days from the date that the grievance was raised.

Phase 2

If a learner is not satisfied with the result of the above:

An official grievance form must be completed and handed to the Edutel Project Manager. This must take place within three working days of the Edutel Project Manager informing the learner of the outcome of phase 1.

Upon receipt of the grievance form, the Edutel Project Manager, after consultation with the learner, must communicate the outcome to the learner in writing within three working days for the purpose of solving the grievance.

If the learner's grievance is not settled to his/her satisfaction, the parties will proceed to the next phase.

Phase 3

The grievance form is handed to Edutel's Human Resource Manager who, within three days of receiving the form, arranges a grievance investigation, which will involve the following people:

- The learner
- Witnesses (if any)
- Edutel Project Manager
- Human Resource Manager.

During the investigation an effort must be made to settle the grievance and Edutel's Human Resource Manager must comment in writing regarding his/her finding within three working days of the grievance investigation having been completed.

If the learner is not satisfied with the findings of the grievance investigation, the parties proceed to Phase 4.

Phase 4

The learner must make use of any appropriate statutory dispute-settling mechanisms as defined in the Labour Relations Act, unless otherwise agreed upon by the learner and Edutel.
